

THE COBB SCHOOLS FOUNDATION AND THE COBB COUNTY SCHOOL
DISTRICT PRESENT:

PROJECT 2400

SAT PREPARATION

Project 2400 is an exclusive SAT Preparation course taught by The Princeton Review designed to help high school juniors increase their SAT score.

COURSE DETAILS

- 24 hours of in-class instruction
- 3 full-length practice tests
- Princeton Review instructors and materials
- Class held at your high school

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

- Student must be a current junior
- Parent and student must attend Project 2400 information meeting
- Tuition: $25.00 (retail value $999)

PROJECT 2400 INFORMATION MEETING

Average score increases from past Project 2400 classes from Practice Test 1 to Practice Test 3 have been approximately 170 points! Score improvement up to 760 points*.

*Results will vary with each individual student.

Project 2400 is only made possible through fundraising efforts of the Cobb Schools Foundation and in partnership with the Cobb County School District. For more information, or to make a donation to help sustain the program, please visit www.cobbschoolsfoundation.org